INCIDENT SUMMARY

A riser froze during the winter and released crude oil and produced water when it thawed. The material was released to soil and is not near a waterway. The area of the release is on private land, is out of containment and not on the lease.

They are sending a crew to remediate the area. The third party contractor will be Lindsay Welding Services, daniellindsay8200@gmail.com. Contact Dan Huber with Javelin Energy Partners for details about the cleanup. They plan to clean up whatever they can with a shovel and then flush with freshwater.
